

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

Explore historic Dunfermline Palace and Abbey, before heading through Pittencrief Park past the statue of the famous philanthropist, Andrew Carnegie. Head north to join the West Fife Way cycle path (NCN 764) and follow this west for 6 miles until a signpost directs you off the cycle path to the picturesque coastal village of Culross.

Step back in time as you explore the cobbled streets and immaculately restored buildings of Culross, before continuing around the historic salt flats of Preston Island.

Follow NCN 76 briefly east to the entrance of Valleyfield Park, and then follow West Fife Woodlands Way north to rejoin the West Fife Way cycle path for the ride back to Dunfermline.
